

A Promising Day for Koh Sichang's Pets & Stray Animals

On the launching day, more than 57 local residents of Koh Sichang showed up with 68 dogs and cats for medical check-up and treatment. Most of their pets were infected with animal-related diseases while some were ill. All were given an immediate aid and were registered for further treatment under TSPCA's 4-month pilot project.

